DRY CARGO MARKET

- Overall market weak due to less activity and high delivery of newbuildings
- Smaller vessel types continued to outperform larger vessels
- High level of scrapping in 1H 2011

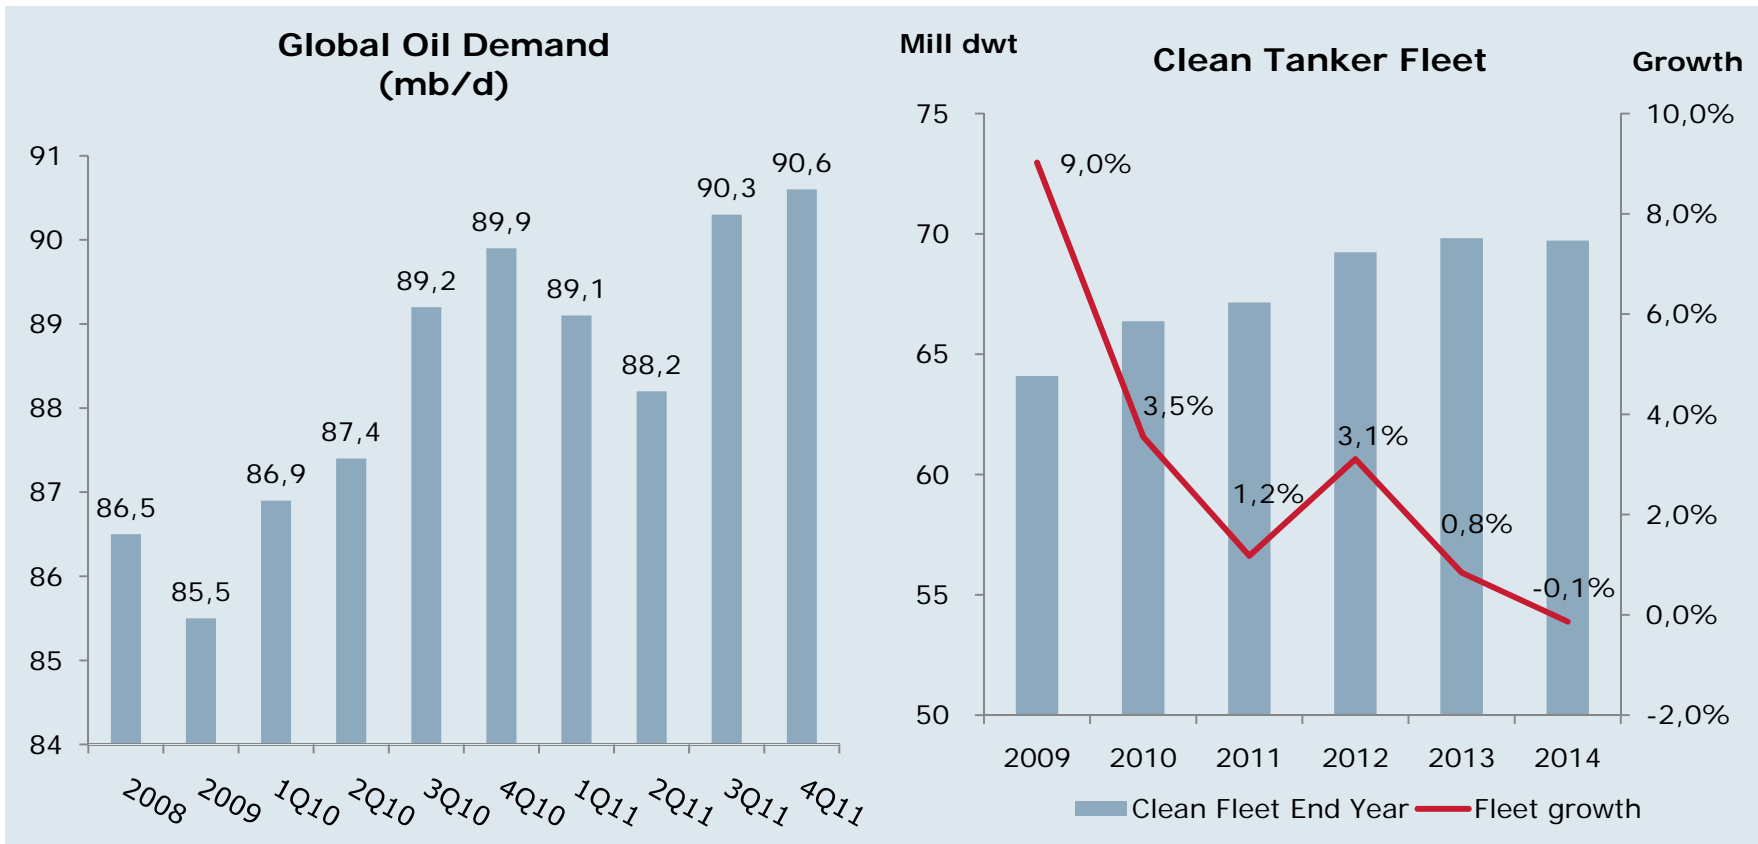

- High delivery schedule expected to continue to put pressure on market rates
- Overall commodity demand still very strong despite of slowing momentum
- 47% of scheduled deliveries did not deliver in H1
- Expect net fleet growth of 13-14% in 2011
- Long term demand outlook remains attractive

TANKER MARKET

- Oil demand expected to increase for the remainder of the year, despite of persistently high oil prices
- Limited fleet growth expected in NORDEN's vessel types in 2011-14

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This presentation contains certain forward-looking statements reflecting the management's present judgment of future events and financial results.

Statements relating to the remainder of 2011 and subsequent years are subject to uncertainty, and NORDEN's actual results may therefore differ from the projections. Factors that may cause such variance include, but are not limited to, changes in macro-economic and political conditions, particularly in the Company's principal markets; changes to the Company's rate assumptions and operating costs; volatility in rates and tonnage prices; regulatory changes; any disruptions to traffic and operations as a result of external events, etc.
